135—The Historical Engine "Texas," Cyclorama Building,

OB-H138A

Atlanta, Ga.

THE OLD WAR ENGINE "TEXAS," CYCLORAMA BUILDING, GRANT PARK, ATLANTA, GA.

"The Texas" is the old war engine which successfully pursued Andrew's Raiders who had captured the engine, "The General," on April 12th, 1862. "The Texas" is a quaint wood-burning engine and was owned by the W. & A. Railway. It is now preserved in all its splendor and housed in the basement of the Cyclorama Building.

R. & R. NEWS COMPANY., ATLANTA, GA.

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C.T. ART-COLORTONE" POST CARD (REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.)

LL13808

PLACE ONE CENT STAMP HERE

POST CARD

CTPA12.9